

Be on alert for fraudulent direct mails and other forms of communications, primarily by e-mail from people claiming to represent Mizuho Trust & Banking

There have been reports of fraudulent attempts by people claiming to represent Mizuho Trust & Banking group subsidiaries that notify individuals that they are entitled to funds held by Mizuho.

There exist fraudulent direct mails or e-mails which are inscribed with genuine-looking imitations of the Mizuho logo and letterhead. If you receive or become aware of a suspicious direct mail, e-mail or flyer, please examine the contents very carefully.
